

Discussions about travel mail remained consistently high throughout the pandemic, while digital activity grew 20%

